

Download An Introduction To Marriage And Family Therapy

The Master of Divinity (MDiv) in Marriage and Family Therapy is a professional-level degree program for individuals planning to enter or continue careers in full-time ministry. If you're searching for marriage and family therapy graduate programs in Indiana, our accredited 60 credit hour graduate program is interpersonal in focus and holistic in approach, emphasizing family systems within each student's Christian worldview context. The Masters of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) prepares you with the knowledge, skill, and insight to practice counseling in a clinical setting. This program integrates theology, theory, personal formation and professional practice. This program is ideal for any student desiring to help in the healing process of those who have experienced hurt, pain and hardship in Marriage and Family Therapy (MMFT) Provide hope. Offer support. Be a servant leader. The mission of Pfeiffer's master of arts in marriage and family therapy program is to provide effective clinical and academic training to students who affirm the dignity and integrity of all individuals through the competent practice of therapy.