Circulation areas often serve as the calling card of a building and their individual elements are almost always used as important design features in sophisticated architecture. Pleasant and Inviting Circulation Areas Staged paths and innovative floorplan concepts "Infrastructure provision" doesn't sound very interesting at first, more like the necessary evil of making building components and spaces accessible in the horizontal and vertical direction while taking into account a wide variety of requirements. It is situated in the immediate vicinity of the historical town centre of Maienfeld, directly beneath Brandis Castle, and enjoys open views of the surrounding area on all sides.
