Like it just fine, hydrostatic treacle is easy to use, never noticed any fatigue with it, my acreage is a bit rough from mole activity and the ability to speed up or slow down as the ground requires avoids getting beat up by the bumps. I thought I had my choices narrowed down to Kubota and New Holland and then I looked at the Massey again. The Massey seems pretty nicely built and everything seems solid. I didn't like the cab as much as the other brands I mentioned but I can save a few thousand by going with it. Huber manuals are a must for the DIY person, offering part numbers, service and repair information, as well as original owners / operators instructions and specifications.
