Operation Auca is a new five-part missionary story that will take children on a journey deep into the lush rainforests of Ecuador to meet Dayuma, a young woman from one of the most violent tribes on Earth, and missionary pilot Nate Saint. Children will discover the power of God's love as they hear this true story of tragedy and triumph that has inspired missionaries for generations. Kids in Action. In our free after school programs, relationships are formed as kids spend time with mentors and learn their true potential. Skits and smaller group activities communicate character lessons based on the Biblical themes like love, generosity, courage, honesty, forgiveness, and kindness. Experience a variety of hands-on learning with our educational programs! Fourth graders will learn about California's history in a dynamic way by examining the construction of the Mission in "Making the Grade" and adopting a new multicultural perspective in "Journeys to the Past."
