The EOS Fitness manifesto says it all! While some people may regard the EOS gyms as just one of your run-of-the-mill chain of gyms, its staff from the receptionists to the personal trainers see things in a different manner. Life Time Fitness consists of several fitness centers located throughout the United States and Canada. While the company is based in Minnesota, Minneapolis, its popularity has spread throughout the country thanks to its vast array of services, amenities and the fact that most locations run 24/7. (Disclaimer: Before you attempt any of the Tabata workout routines below, make sure you have the adequate strength and endurance to complete these workouts safely. I take no responsibility for any injury, broken bones or even DEATH BY TABATA) No time for slacking off today.
