Our beloved parents, honored guests, the Board of Trustees, School Administrators, Faculty, fellow graduates, friends, ladies and gentlemen, a pleasant morning to all of you. College Graduation Tribute to Parents Speech. So for students leaving college they say all that parents deserve by way of appreciation. They mention their support over the years and how they have encouraged such students to graduate. They are addressed to all the parents present but have an optional paragraph which enables the speaker to speak individually to his or her parents.
